QUESTIONS

- How would you describe Adam and Eve in this story?
- Why do you think Adam and Eve ate the fruit? What changed after they ate the fruit? How did their relationship with each other, God and creation change?
- One way to look at this story is that God was protecting Adam and Eve like children from knowledge they weren't ready to handle. What do you think about this theory? What happens when a child knows too much too soon?
- What do you notice about God in this story?
- What glimpses of hope can be found in the midst of this tragic story?
- What does this story say about US and YOU?
